3-1 Omaha Victory Must Be Replayed

Loop Prexy Gives Ruling Early Today

But Bergesch to Fight Order to 'Hilt'

By Robert Phipps

An apparent 31 victory by the Cardinals over Minneapolis Saturday night was thrown out early this morning on orders from President Ed Doherty of the American Association.

The game, he ruled, must be replayed today from the point of argument.

of argument.

of argument.

Manager Bill Rigney of the visitors entered the protest after several umpiring decisions were reversed during a 20-minute rhubarb in the first half of the seventh inning Saturday

During the long delay more than six thousand fans threatened to riot if Pitcher Stu Miller was not put back into the game.

Miller Thrown Out

Miller Thrown Out
Miller had been thrown out by Plate Umpire Ed Taylor.
Doherty said the replay will precede today's scheduled fourth game.

But Bill Bergesch, Omaha general manager, retorted, "We're appealing Doherty's decision to the board of directors of the Association. There will no replay

"We'll fight this to the hilt."
Today's baseball program will start at 2 regardless.

Serious Situation
Saturday night's seventhing situation grew so serious that the four umpires appealed to Doherty, who was in a box seat behind home plate.

Doherty had both managers and the umpires in a conference after the game. The talk concerned the conduct of the game, the incident which started the rhubarb and the protest of Rig-

The game was scoreless in the seventh with Monte Irvin the seventh with Monte Irvin of the visitors at bat. Eddie Taylor, umpiring at the plate, called the second pitch a ball.

Swing a Strike?

Miller at that point had a nohit game. He came off the mound, asked Taylor to check with Bob Stewart, third base ump.

Irvin had taken a half-swing. Irvin had taken a half-swing. Miller fold (raylor that Stewart had made a motion to the plate official indicating Irvin's swing should be called a strike.

In the long vacillation that followed, Taylor talked to almost everybody but Stewart. He appropriate of the Miller of the stewart had been appropriated both Miller of the stewart had been appropriated between the stewart had been appropriated between the stewart had been stewart had been appropriated between the stewart had been appropriated between the stewart had been stewart ha apparently ousted both Miller and Catcher Dick Rand. Fans Throw Cushions

Fans Throw Cushions
Irate fans then threw cushions on the field. One spectator got on the field and was dragged off by three policemen.
Miller's ejection was based on an Association rule forbidding any argument about a ball and strike decision. The umpires huddled in mid-

The umpires huddled in midfield several times but took no action for minutes.

Bergesch walked out and persuaded them to talk to Doherty.
Their interpretation of the strike
call rule might be faulty, Bergesch pointed out.

Card Battery Returned

After several talks with

After several talks with Doherty, the Cardinal battery was put back into the game. Rigney promptly protested. Umpire Taylor reversed the decision on the disputed pitch to make it a strike. A moment later Monte, who rarely hits

Miller, grounded out.
So did the next man in the still hitless Miller batting order. But Bob Lennon broke the spell of Miller's mound wizardry. He stroked the ball over the leftcenterfield fence.

Just 2 More Hits

There were only two more hits off Miller, who pitched his finest game of the year.

The backs-to-the-wall Cards were scoreless until the eighth. Homers by Dick Rand and Don Blasingame put Omaha on top. Blasingame's blast came with a man on base.

Omaha will start Gordon
Jones this afternoon. The Millers will send Southpaw Joe Margoneri to the mound.

Minneapolis and h. o. a.

er Air Force Base near here with the two-inch fish packed in 50-gallon drums.

Terps, 13-12

Maryland Victory

zied fury after giving the Terps a 13-point first-half lead. Mary-land won, 13-12.

kick after Maryland's first touchdown midway in the opening period proved the winning margin. Maryland swept 64 yards for the touchdown with Halfback Ed Vereb scooting the recovered on the Missouri 36. Four plays later, Quarterback Frank Tamburello hit Walker on a 22-yard scoring pass.

Mizzou Club Pushes

and kept the pressure on the Terps the rest of the way.

tries for the extra point.

after a 69-yard drive. A pass interception by Sophomore Jer-ry Curtright set up the first shelling they suffered at the hands of Maryland last Thanks-giving. An estimated 18 thousand watched in 92-degree weather.

quarterback from Baltimore, operated Maryland's offensive smoothly in the sliding T team's first half.

Martin, in action after two years of Army duty, pacing the fiery comeback, got the jump at-most every play after the inter-a standout as was Walker.

two of 15 tosses as the Terps forward wall pressed hard.

Porter, Ex-Nebraska

F. W. (Foy) Porter, 61, former Omahan and one me Nebraska state golf champion, died Saturday at his home in Montclair, N. J., according to word received here.

100-Yard Sprint After Pass Interception Paces Florida

Gainesville, Fla. (P)-Jackie Simpson scooted the length of the football field with an intercepted pass and went 16 yards cepted pass and went to yards on another scoring run as Florida defeated Mississippi State, 20-14, in a Southeastern Conference opener Saturday. The Florida victory—and the margin of it—were just as predicted. But it seemed Mississippi State was going to rewrite the script for the crowd of 20 thousand.

of 29 thousand.
State moved 44 yards to a first quarter touchdown on the tricky quarterbacking of Bill Stanton and the running of Jim Tait, who plunged the final two yards.

Florida was throttled in the first half but four minutes into the third quarter Simpson cut off his right guard, turned sharply and outmaneuevered the State secondary in the 46-yard jaunt to the goal.

A few minutes later State was on the move again. The Maroons arrived at the Florida six, where Tait tossed a wobbly pass and Simpson gathered it in on the goal line. He streaked one hundred yards for the score.

streaked one humared yards for the score.
State Coach Darrell Royal, in his playing days a fine quarterback at Oklahoma, had Bill. Stanton and Jim Bain well schooled in the tricky maneuvers of the split. T.

Sacramento, Cal. (UP)—The Air Force Saturday transported 2,500 fingerling striped bass to Oklahoma to combat the useless carp and provide a new game fish.

A C-119 took off from Math-

The stripers, a meat-eating specie, were destined for Lake Murray at Ardmore, Okla., and the Great Salt Plain Reservoir at Enid, Okla.

Tigers Scare

1st-Half Tallies Give

Columbia, Mo. (P)—Missouri's Tigers came within a whisker of upsetting Maryland's nationally rated Terps Saturday.

The Tigers battled with fren-

Bob Laughery's perfect place-

Nebraska

toting.

Regulars Drive Fast

launched a counter-attack.

line buck.

poria 29.

E. Baker (0)

The rookie Omaha backfield

of DiBiase, Don Roberts, Don Benning and Harold Norgaard

It was a short-lived venture

Omaha starters re-entered the Smith, who had five-for-five on conversion placements, kicked off to the Hornets with

Tannahill Recovers

Approximately 3,100 fans saw the University of Omaha score its fifteenth straight football triumph Saturday—a 35-13 conquest of Kansas Teachers of

The Indians won without Bill

The willing Hornets scored twice against Omaha U. re-to 21-13 with five minutes remaining and fun was over for

Single Wing Clicks

Dick Tannahill replaced Engelhardt as field general and passed for three of the five Omaha touchdowns.

John DiBiase quarterbacked the second outfit and turned in a creditable rookie performance.

Tannahill had his choice of plays but most of his yardage came from single wingback maneuvers.

Emporia had only one offensive play during the first seven minutes of a scoreless first quarter. And the Hornets managed only two first downs and 20 yards net rushing during the first half.

Lots of Late Action

Émporia.

A blocked punt set up Mary-land's second touchdown. End Bill Walker blocked Jimmy Her-ter's punt and Russell Dennis

Missouri grabbed the upper hand early in the third quarter

Hunter, who passed for both Missouri touchdowns, reached Hunter, who passed for both Missouri touchdowns, reached Halfback Sonny Stringer on an eight-yard scoring toss in the third and pitched 15 yards to End Harold Burnine midway of the fourth quarter. Guard Charles Mehrer missed both tries for the extra point

69-Yard Drive

The final Missouri score came Engelhardt, the nation's total of-fense feader among small col-lege backs in 1954, and Ken Con-The near victory partly avenged the Tigers for the 74-13 rad, a blocking back. Both were benched by leg injuries. serves.

Coach-Lloyd Cardwell sent his regulars back into the game after the Omaha margin was cut

Frank Tamburello, a junior

Missouri, with Guard Jim

Terp Line Presses

Maryland's huge Mike San-dusky, a 240-pound tackle, was

Missouri shot most of its first half offensive from a spread formation but completed only Missouri outgained the Terps by a scant four yards, 203-199. Hunter completed seven of his 18 passes for 81 yards. Tamburello connected on one of three for 22.

Halfback Howard Dare of Maryland was the leading ground gainer, picking up 52 yards on six carries.

Score by quarters—
Maryland Scoring: Touchdowns—Vereo (14, rm) Walker (22, pass-rur from Tamburello: Conversion—Lauchery, Missouri scoring: Touchdowns—Stringer

Golf King, Succumbs

Survivors include his widow Ruth; daughters, Mrs. R. N. Jennings of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. John J. Egan of Boston; sister, Mrs. Robert B. Edwards, Omaha.

Straight Victory, 35-13

SCRIMMAGE LINE

TACKLED HERE

Kawawaki (H)

Win Boosts AL Lead to Full Game

Race at a Glance

w. V. L. Pet. G. E.
eve York 90 56 616 eveland 90 58 608 1
hleago 87 61 588 4
Remaining Games
Cleveland (6): Home (1)—Detroit (1), potember 18. Away (5)—Chicago (2), eptember 20, 21; Detroit (3). September 3, 24, 25. nowever, as Eddy Uyeshiro, speedy import from Hawaii, pirated a DiBaise pass and streaked 59 yards to a touchdown. September 20. 21; Detroit (3), September 23, 24, 25; New York (8); Home (1)—Boston (1), September 21, 2, May (7)—Boston (4), September 23, 24, 25; Washington (3), September 20, 21; Kaisas City (3), September 20, 21; Kaisas City (3), September 20, 24; Kaisas City (3), September 23, 24, 25, Away (1)—Kansas City September 18.

game and marched 54 yards in three minutes. Arnie Smith went the last 24 on a delayed New York (A)—The New York

The ball bounced past End Danny Clodfelter and Tanna-hill recovered on the Em-A third big name, however, was added to the growing Yankee injury list.

poria 29.

Smith ripped through, the middle to the 11. With 11 seconds remaining, a Tannahill pass to Pete Rigatuso fizzled.

Walt Miller, an unsung end the past two seasons, then made a diving catch in the end zone for Omaha's fifth touchdown.

May Play Today

The helmet split open and Rizzuto was knocked unconscious but Dr. Sidney Caynor, Boys Town 38 ... Loras (Dubuque) 0 There was time only for the kick-off after Miller's catch.
Rigatuso made Omaha's the club physician, said the injury did not appear too serious.
Rizzuto may even be able to appear the club physician, said the injury did not appear too serious.
Rizzuto may even be able to appear to serious.

Lots of Late Action
Tannahill and Bill Steck combined for the second-period touchdowns, both on razzledazzle pass plays.

The first was a seven-yard toss and a 30-yard broken field run. The second was a 31-yard pass play 45 seconds before intermission.

Most of the action was crammed into the final quarter, with four touchdowns being recorded.

Embassion Steck Smion, Han, Gibcon, Mancust of the four touchdowns being recorded.

Emporia needed eight minutes to march from its 21 to a seven-standing a 46-yard drive.

Over from the two, climaxing a 46-yard drive, climaxing a 46-yard drive.

Deck McCalum, Gritton, Koekaue. Carroll, Marsland, Selby, M

This is just one sample of how things did NOT click for the Huskers. A lateral from Erway to Cifra goes awry . . . and Greenlaw salvages the football-but loses one yard.

Yankees boosted their margin over the Cleveland Indians to a full game Saturday in the tense

Phil Rizzuto, veteran short-stop, was hit in the back of his plastic head helmet by one of George Susce's pitches in the Rizzuto may even be able to play today when he is being their loss to Creighton Prep last showered with presents by fans.

Omaha U. Scores 15th Yanks Spill Eager Hawaii Shocks Straight Victory 35-13 Sluggish Huskers, 6-0

Sunday Gorld-Herald

Sports Section

SECTION C

-OMAHA, NEBRASKA, SEPTEMBER 18, 1955

Ariyoshi (H)

The University of Hawaii handed Nebraska a shocking 6-0 deed Nebraska a shocking feat Saturday and sent 23 thousand fans trudging home trying to recall if the Huskers ever had made a more dismal football opening.

It didn't seem possible that the Huskers were beaten by the which took a 50-0 they didn't let a lack of reserve strength bother them a bit.

fall. Coach Henry Vasconcellos of American League pennant race by defeating Boston 4-1 on Tommy Byrne's four-hitter.

The Detroit Tigers, meanwhile, beat the Indians, 3-1, for the second straight time.

A third big rame.

Coach Henry Vasconcellos of the Rainbows warned he had a much better club than a year ago but he was resigned to the fact he didn't have the manny of a game.

and looked superior all the way. ing up the Nebraskans. gaining It wasn't so much that the Hawaiians were better than last year but more that the Nebras-63 yards for an average of seven yards on nine carries.

Instead of wilting in the 94-degree heat, the Hawaiians seemed stronger at the finish.

Little Backs Scamper Hawaii used only 21 players.

Nebraska used 24.

The big heroes were a couple of 160-pound halfbacks who ran of a game.
Superior From Start
But the eager Hawaiians got all afternoon.

of 160-pound halfbacks who ran past the big, sluggish Huskers all afternoon.

Aroused South Team Routs Favored Central High, 25-6

Coach Cletus Fischer's South and the Eagles lost the ball on a

Saturday's Prep Results penalties, the Eagles had a first

Eagles Lose Ball Two passes fell incomplete

A pass interception late in the

The Packer forward wall stood out. Central was held to 92 yards rushing.

A pass interception late in the third period gave the Packers the ball on the Central 43. With the help of a 15-yard penalty.

A break led to the Central to uch down. A South punt bounced and hit a Packer player on the leg. It was recovered by Central on the South five.

Wally Bryans Scores Wally Bryans scored from the three four plays later. A 21-yard run by Kennedy led to the third Packer tally. Snukis the Eagle 30.

hand-off play and looked around for some help. But no Husker charged in. He stepped easily to the one-yard line. Then Hartwell Freitas, senior fullback, plunged for the touch-team, 25-6, at Creighton Saturday night.

the help of a 15-yard penalty, South moved to the two and Vic Shukis scored.

Tom Taylor ripped off gains of 10 and 17. Kennedy scored from the three with 1:04 left.

Passing Strategy Misses It didn't matter that Don Bo-Turn to Page 4-C. Column

Scores Saturday Other scores on Page 3-C.

Major Football

When Dyer went out with a leg injury, Bill Taylor, a 5-8 freshman just out of Honolulu

High, took over to make the Huskers look silly.

It was a 36-yard run by Taylor which set up the game's only touchdown, just nine minutes and 20 seconds before the final

Dazed and Disorganized

Taylor broke loose through the right side of the Husker line and streaked down the cast sideline

It looked like he might go all the way but Willie Greenlaw angled in and dropped him out

The Hawaiians were fired up now and the Huskers were dazed and disorganized.

Ed Kawawaki messed up a of bounds on the six-yard line.

Big Seven
Hawaii 6 ... Nebraska 0
Denver 19 ... Iowa State 7
Maryland 13 ... Missouri 12
Wyoming 38 .. Kansas State 20 Texas Christian 47 .. Kansas 14

Other Leading Scores Pittsburgh 27 California W. Forest 13, Virginia Tech Tulane 20VMI 7
Georgia T'h 14, Miami (Fla.) 6
Florida 20, Mississippi State 14

Dykes, Tamasi Lead

Don Marquez and Taylor fired the Packers' running game. Short passes from Jerry Gould to End LeRoy Hoden kept the Turn to Page 2-C. Column 8.

Dykes, Tamasi Leau Dykes and Judy Tamasi led scorers at Indian Hills Saturday with 73's. Other scores: Jack Turnguist. 74. Jim Ozlesby. Jim Dougherty. Washer Fore Bill Henderson. Pat Quinlan and Vince McAndrew, 76. Bud Werr. 77.

Blind bogey—John Barrett. 107-30—77.

Ohio State's Cassady Hurt on Extra Scrimmage Plau

Columbus. O. On -W hat three days but he should be ready to play against Netate's first team a little extra was intended to give Ohio State's first team a little extra sharpening up for next week's opener against Nebraska al-most proved fatal to the Buck-on an overtime play after time was up in a full-dress scrimmage All-American Howard (Hopalong) Cassady suffered a strained ligament on the inside of his right knee.

Dr. Dick Patton, team physician said, "it appears to be a ligament tear, not too severe. He should be all right by next week, the way it looks now."

Trainer Ernie Biggs decided: "I'd say he would be held out of work for at least

Cassady assured everyone:
"I'll be out there Monday. It isn't much." Cassady was injured in a cassady was injured in a spill after time had run out on the stadium clock. The Reds (first team) appeared to be marching for a winning touchdown and Hayes ordered play to continue to continue.

The Reds never did make the TD and the Whites (second team) won the last big pre-season scrimmage, 13-12.

A conversion by End Fred Kriss was the difference. Cassady scored both of the Reds' touchdowns.

Smith (0)